

SHORT STACK: A PANCAKE STORY BY ME

Note to the grownup: You can help a child develop creative thinking skills as you take turns filling in the blanks together. What are some things people could put on pancakes that you might not expect?

Teach your child to explore unusual and creative things they could put on their pancakes. This makes the story even more fun!

MONDAY

I ate 1 pancake with _____ on top.

TUESDAY

I ate 2 pancakes with _____ and _____ on top.

WEDNESDAY

I ate 3 pancakes, but this time, I added _____ and _____ and _____.

Draw your toppings on your stack of pancakes.

THURSDAY

When I woke up, there was a big hairy _____ sitting on the table eating my 4 pancakes.

What color was the big, hairy thing? Can you draw it next to the pancakes?

FRIDAY

I hid under the kitchen table to make sure nothing could get my pancakes.

I ate all 5 of them and I felt _____.

SATURDAY

I woke up to find 6 pancakes waiting.

Can you write the numbers 1 - 6 on the pancakes? What did you put on top today?

SUNDAY

I stacked up 7 delicious pancakes. Write a shopping list for 7 things I needed to go on top of them:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

Next week, I think I will eat _____ for breakfast instead!
